

Tønsberg is the oldest town in Norway

The city of Tønsberg is in the county of Vestfold.

- Tønsberg is the oldest town in Norway
- The first excavations for vikingships was done in Tønsberg
- Vestfold county is the most visited holiday county in Norway
- Easily connected to Europe by Ferry from Danmark, or by road through Sweden
- We will arrange special guided tours for all to enjoy.

Welcome to Norway for the F4 Scale World Championship 2020

Organisation committee will use the experience from 2009 FAI F4 EC at Starmoen Norway, to guarantee for well organised FAI F4 World Championship

Schedule:

July 25-27	Arrival/registration training.
July 27	Opening ceremony/ Airshow
July 27- August 1	Contest
August 1	Closing ceremony and banquet

Entry fee:	500 Euro Senior
	250 Euro Junior
	500 Euro TM and TM-assist
	100 Euro supporter
	60 Euro banquet

No charge for official press and media

FAI F4 Scale
World Championship
2020
Norway

JARLSBERG AIRSPORT CENTER
25.07-02.08.2020

The facility has 3 hangars and a main club building with dining rooms, office, showers, wc, and meetingrooms.
 Runway 1 has 799x18 m of tarmac, and 300x10 m of grass
 Runway 2 has 300x14 m of tarmac and 300x15 of grass.

Hotel Oseberg Tønsberg

Jarlsberg Airport Center is an airfield close to the city of Tønsberg, 90 km south west of Oslo.
 59 18 N 010 22 E

Airfield has Two flightlines with concrete and grass

The field is operated by 5 clubs as a foundation

Tønsberg flyingclub, Tønsberg parachooting club, Tønsberg sailplane club, Tønsberg microlight Club, and Tønsberg model aircraft club all has the Airfield as their homebase.

Accommodation

The Main Hotel for Judges and FAI representatives will be Hotel Oseberg in the center of Tønsberg, just 3 km from the Airfield.

There will also be Camping facilities on Jarlsberg Airport Center with showers, toilets and electricity.

Other accommodations is also available through visitvestfold.no

